

OLI BROWN

HEADS I WIN, TAILS YOU LOSE

RUF RECORDS - 29 APRIL 2010

The eagerly awaited follow up to Oli Brown's critically acclaimed debut album Open Road is released on Ruf Records 29 April 2010.

Heads I Win, Tails You Lose features that unique Oli Brown sound; clean guitar, great riffs and a vocal honed by two years of touring that squeezes every emotion from the lyrics.

The album shows the quality of Oli's song writing with stunning tracks like Evil Soul and Speechless, yet he refuses to shy away from adapting his own favourite classics such as Fever and No Diggity.

This album was produced by the legendary Mike Vernon (Fleetwood Mac, Eric Clapton, Ten Years After, Freddie King, John Mayall), who was keen to come out of retirement to work with the talented Oli after hearing his debut CD.

Oli Brown has had a phenomenal year; his popularity as a live artist continues to grow, and with this release, there will be no stopping him.

Oli's tour of Europe kicks off in the spring, followed by a 15 date tour of the UK in May under the title of New Generation Blues.

The end of a busy six months culminates in Oli's debut at the famous Glastonbury Festival.

The new CD and May tour will be sponsored and supported by HMV and Planet Rock Radio, the latter giving good airplay support along with additional support from Total Rock Radio.

A BBC Radio 2 session with Paul Jones has already been recorded, and Guitar & Bass Magazine will be featuring Oli in a 3 page spread later on in the year.

Plans for later in the year include tours of the USA and New Zealand before returning to the UK in October.
